Learning Objectives for Helping Hands

"There can be no issue of greater importance to parents and carers, or to schools, than the safety of their children; safeguarding remains high on OFSTED's agenda and will continue to do so." - OFSTED

Attitudes and Values

- Children have an increased awareness of what makes a safe and healthy relationship.
- Children have an increased awareness that if people are affected by abuse that it is not their fault.
- Children have increased awareness that everyone has a right to feel safe all the time.
- Children have increased awareness of the importance of telling a trusted adult if they have any worries or concerns or don't feel safe.

Skills

- Children have an increased ability to identify signs of abuse including grooming / child sexual exploitation (CSE) or abuse (CSA).
- Children have an increased confidence in telling a trusted adult if they feel unsafe.
- Children have an increased ability to stay safe online.

Knowledge

- Children have increased knowledge of the NSPCC PANTS rule* and other ways to stay safe.
- Children have increased knowledge of relevant and appropriate services that can support children if they do not feel safe e.g. ChildLine.

* PANTS is an NSPCC campaign designed to keep children safe from sexual abuse, for more information visit nspcc.org.uk/PANTS.
